This is our first auction to eclipse $5 million in gross sales and is an Australian record for a numismatic auction. The sale also puts coin, medal and banknote sales on a similar level to major art sales in terms of financial significance.

The highest price ever paid at auction for a Commonwealth of Australia ten shillings banknote was achieved when serial number M000005 (lot 2909, estimate $200,000) realised $297,075, closely followed by serial M000004 (lot 2910, estimate $180,000) at $285,425 (or $582,500 for the pair). Both lots were bought by the same buyer. A new world record for an Australian token was achieved when the Hogarth & Erichsen threepence (lot 903, estimate $75,000) realised $92,035. The top priced coin was the best NSW holey dollar (lot 1244, estimate $130,000) at $130,480. The best of the NSW dumps (lot 1250, estimate $70,000) realised $69,900. The second highest price was the cracked die Adelaide pound (lot 1259, estimate $120,000) which realised $113,005. Highest percentages over estimate of the coins went to the young head half sovereigns in choice condition, for example the 1872 Sydney (lot 1375, estimate $3,500) realised $12,815; the 1873 Melbourne (lot 1376, estimate $2,500) realised $13,980 (originally sold to the owner in 1979 for $750); the 1882 Melbourne (lot 1377, estimate $9,000) realised $20,038 (originally sold in 1978 out of the Ballarat Hoard for $350) and the 1887 Melbourne (lot 1383, estimate $9,000) realised $21,203.

A proof Jubilee head half sovereign 1893 Melbourne (lot 1398, estimate $30,000) realised $53,590. A square penny 1921 (lot 1399, estimate $30,000) realised $39,610. The top result among the proofs was for the 1934 florin (lot 1403, estimate $15,000) that realised $32,038 (a new record price for the coin). The proof Canberra florin (lot 1402, estimate $12,000) realised $18,640 (it was originally purchased from us in 1985 for $1,800). The finest of the two overdate threepences (lot 1523, estimate $7,500) realised $10,602.

In the British series a Cromwell shilling (lot 1642, estimate $2,500) did well realising $4,078, while a 1751 crown (lot 1669, estimate $3,500) realised $3,612. In the military medals section the highest price was achieved by a DFC group of eight (lot 2290, estimate $10,000) which realised $13,980, while a wireless squadron trio (lot 2297, estimate $4,000) did well at $5,942.

In World banknotes the New Zealand Lefeaux fifty pounds brought the highest price at $14,213 (lot 2560, estimate $10,000) while a consecutive pair of Lefeaux pounds (lot 2558, estimate $3,500) realised $6,175. The collection of Scottish banknotes sold at forty percent over estimate, best individual result was lot 2656 (estimate $120) at $606.

The Australian private bank issues all sold well, some far beyond estimate. A handwritten bill of exchange for Augusta 1832 signed by Bussell (lot 2873, estimate $5,000) realised $13,980, an Australian & European Bank proof by Sands & McDougall (lot 2878, estimate $3,000) realised $8,155, an Australian Joint Stock Bank one pound (lot 2879, estimate $8,000) realised $18,640, a City Bank of Melbourne one pound overprinted 19th June 1893 (lot 2883, estimate $15,000) realised $24,465, a Colonial Bank of Australia proof by Sands & McDougall (lot 2884, estimate $4,000) realised $10,951, a CBA pound with Chinese script (lot 2885, estimate $30,000) realised $47,765 (a record for any issued one pound private bank note), a Sydney Banking Company five pounds (lot 2886, estimate $20,000) realised $33,785, a pre-gold rush Union Bank pound of 1847 (lot 2887, estimate $20,000) realised $31,455 and a Goulburn issue of 1858 (lot 2888, estimate $16,000) realised $23,300. A Thomas Edwards skit or advertising note (lot 2905, estimate $1,000) realised $3,495, a record for such a type.

The three outstanding superscribed notes realised new world records, the Bank of Victoria, serial number 9 one pound (lot 2974, estimate $80,000) realised $138,635, the good extremely fine National pound (lot 2975, estimate $65,000) realised $96,695 and the Royal Bank one pound (lot 2976, estimate $75,000) realised $100,190, making a total of $335,520 for the trio.

The Commonwealth pre-decimal, star and error banknotes saw strong results. Highlights included a run of four one pounds of 1933 (lot 3009, estimate $5,000), knocked down at $21,203 after a drawn out bidding duel, a 1932 five pounds (lot 3049, estimate $6,000) realised $13,980, a pair of 1941 five pounds (lot 3062, estimate $2,000) realised $5,709 and a run of ten 1960 issues (lot 3079, estimate $600) realised $8,854 after strong competitive bidding. A 1925 ten pounds (lot 3083, estimate $20,000) realised $23,300. The run of nine one dollar stars (lot 3159, estimate $18,000) realised $26,795 and the five pounds star (lot 3156, estimate $20,000) realised $23,300. In the errors a 1974 one dollar missing simultan (lot 3177, estimate $500) realised $4,660 and a 1979 two dollars vertical registration shift (lot 3179, estimate $300) realised $2,447. In the war related series a five years certificate of 1919 (lot 3123, estimate $1,500) realised $2,214 while the unpublished canteen coupons (lot 3139, estimate $1,000) realised a staggering $11,883.

The most spectacular price over estimate went to the lot of two gold Magarey medals to Tom McKenzie (lot 963, estimate $600) which realised $29,591 after a contest between two determined floor bidders. Other strong prices included an 1889 Exhibition medalet (lot 948, estimate $100) which realised $1072 and an engraved teapot (lot 922, estimate $500) realised $2,330 to an institution. The Resolution & Adventure medal (lot 919, estimate $6,500) realised $10,485. An internment camp five shillings in choice condition (lot 909, estimate $2,000) realised $5,942 and a very rare one hundred pfening of the SMS Emden (lot 908, estimate $400) realised $1,398. In the Australian token series records prices were established throughout for top condition and rarity. The *ASNC*o. halfpenny (lot 839, estimate $25,000) realised $26,096, a gem FDC Friedman penny (lot 842, estimate $1,500) realised $3612, a gem Samuel Henry penny (lot 864, estimate $1,500) realised $3146 and the excessively rare Milner & Thompson small size penny (lot 884, estimate $20,000) realised a record $26,213 for a New Zealand token.

In the ancient coins session the Queensland collection was well received and sold at estimate or more with over eighty percent clearance. In the general properties the Macedon octadrachm realised the highest price $17475 (lot 3379, estimate $14,000) while the best Roman result went to a Lucius Verus sestertius (lot 3633, estimate $5,000) at $7,223.

On behalf of the Company I would like to thank all our bidders and vendors for their support. Our next sale takes place in Sydney on 22-24 November and lots are being accepted at both offices until Friday 16th September. This sale once again promises to be an important event.
