Mrs E.C.Gray was awarded a bronze medal presented by the RAS to commemorate the accession of King George VI. Her victory was in the category of Best Challenge Dog, all breeds, as owner of a cocker spaniel imported from England, Champion Midas of Hollymount, a Melbourne entry. This was the dog's first year as a competitor at the Royal Sydney Show and as well as being unanimously declared winner of the above event was also adjudged as the best animal of all breeds, either dog or bitch, to have competed during the 1937 show. News reports stated that this dog had been greatly admired by both experts and members of the general public alike with spectators surrounding the arena to catch a glimpse of the remarkably fine looking animal which also won the category of Best Cocker Spaniel, dog or bitch. Prizes were presented by Sir Frederick McMaster at the showground on Monday night 29 March 1937. He was Vice President of the RAS and one of Australia's most respected pastoralists and a great philanthropist particularly to the pastoral industry.

 $300

The Ceylonese gold Kahavanu in the name of the "Lord of Sri Lanka" are believed to have been struck starting around 960, and continued through the period of the Chola occupation, with Raja Chola completing the conquest around 1001, and continuing until the expulsion of the Cholas by Vijaya Bahu around 1070. The standard anonymous Kahavanu have stereotyped figures of the king holding a sankh shell and lotus respectively on obverse and reverse. These variant types may have been struck at subsidiary mints around the island, or possibly even on the Indian mainland in Tamilnadu.
