$300

A small partial run of these important journals, one of the best published in the English language. Each volume contains at least 10 articles, many of which are used in our Noble Numismatics catalogues, eg. Visona, Carthage; Kagan, Scepsis; Kroll, Athens; Kleiner, Athens, Pergamum and Rhodes, the dated coinage of Ephesus; Holloway, Aegina; Troxell, Peloponnesian Alexanders; Bloesch, Aegeae; Morkholm, Argeae, Ptolemaic coinage, Laodicea and Athens; Sacks, Myrina; Selinus hoard; Bing, Case of Issus; articles mostly pertain to ancient coinage and these are usually important reference articles. These publications are important and should be in every library devoted to ancient coins.

$150

The first an important sale catalogue that is used as a reference in its own right on Byzantine coins, the second book describes a collection of 1432 coins all of which are illustrated. It includes many rarities and rarely illustrated issues. Both books are most important for the collector of Byzantine coins. Hunt is Part 4 of the greatest family collection of ancient coins ever sold, this is probably the greatest collection of Byzantine coins ever sold in one sale, a most elaborate catalogue again with spectacular colour photography.
