The Prudential Assurance Company's new building in Martin Place, Sydney was officially opened in a ceremony performed by the NSW Premier, Sir Bertram Stevens KCMG. A luncheon was then held at the new Romano's restaurant which was in the building. There were over 300 guests representing various professions and businesses in Sydney. Sir George Barstow of England, deputy chairman of the company was in attendance with his wife. Other notable guests included the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress (Ald and Mrs N.L.Nock), Mr and Mrs J.F.Hennessy, Sir George and Lady Julius, Mr and Mrs Colin Sinclair, Mr W.M. and Dame Mary Hughes, Dr and Mrs K.B.Noad, Mr and Mrs R.C.Chapple, Mrs Florence Taylor, Miss Ruby Board and Miss E.M.Kiss.

Kenneth Beeson 'Bob' Noad was born at Maitland, NSW on 25 March 1900 and died at Elizabeth Bay in Sydney on 24 May 1987. He was one of the first neurologists in Sydney and was honorary physician at the Sydney Hospital and consultant neurologist at the Concord Repatriation General Hospital. He made important research contributions to the study of scrub fever and hyperparathyroidism (when the parathyroid glands behind the thyroid at the bottom of the neck create too much parathyroid hormone in the bloodstream). He served on the council of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians for 14 years and was president from 1962 to 1964. He was an original member of the Australian Academy of Forensic Sciences and also held many other important medical positions throughout his career as well as serving with the AIF from 1940 to 1946 as a Lieutenant Colonel with 2/11 Australian General Hospital.

The following is part of a report in The Sydney Morning Herald in NSW on Friday 20 June 1941, page 8 - 'There is no cause which invites support more compellingly than the Red Cross Society, and to-day is Red Cross Day, when everyone who is abroad in the city will find innumerable voluntary collectors eager to receive contributions towards a noble organisation which works unceasingly to mitigate the suffering and anxieties of war. From its International headquarters in Geneva the Society maintains contact with all the warring Governments and is able through the right of entry into their territories to bring relief to sick and wounded wherever they may lie. The Australian Red Cross has established convalescent homes in all the States and has sent overseas large quantities of medical supplies and gifts of clothing to British and Allied societies. In addition it maintains in each State and abroad bureaux for making inquiries about soldiers reported to be wounded.'

The following article was published in Barrier Daily Truth (Broken Hill, NSW) on Saturday 2 September 1944, page 3.

CHINESE COMFORTS FUND

(To the Editor)

On the 7th July, 1944, China bravely marched into her eighth year of war of resistance against the Japanese invaders. For seven long years, China has suffered untold agonies never before experienced in her 5,000 years' history. For the last two and a half years she has been blockaded by sea and land and has had to fight with flesh and blood against fire and steel. Though terribly wounded physically, spiritually China has remained undaunted. Now, as victory is drawing nearer, the task of the final destruction of the enemy the greater part of whose armies is on China's soil, will mean that China's burden will become even heavier.

In compliance with an instruction from Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek that branches of the Chinese Comforts Fund be established in overseas countries, and with a desire to play their part to hasten victory, the Australian Division of the Chinese Comforts Fund was formed recently by the Chinese citizens, to work for the provision of comforts for the Chinese and Allied Fighting Forces operating in the Chinese theatre of war. In response to suggestions by a number of Australian friends, our Executive Committee is now extending the appeal to the Australian public.

It is fully realised that you are answering many similar requests, but China's cause and the efforts which her soldiers have made during their long resistance against a ruthless enemy are such that they will undoubtedly appeal to your generosity. Any assistance which you can render will be gratefully acknowledged. For Income Tax purposes, donations to this fund are allowable deductions for Companies and rebateable allowances for individuals.

I am sure that your readers will realise very clearly what the soldiers of China are doing in defence of Justice and freedom. - Yours, etc.

T. Y. LIN, President, Chinese Comforts Fund . (Australian Division), Box 4016, G.P.O., Sydney.

Together with large RHS of A certificate dated 25/6/1945 - to Clyde F.B.Gregory Yeppoon (Qld.), Fisherman, aged 37 years, in rescuing Lillian E.Jensen, aged 14, from drowning in the sea at Yeppoon (Qld.) on December 18, 1944.

The following report was published in the Morning Bulletin, Rockhampton on Tuesday 19 December 1944 on page 3.

BOY AND GIRL DROWNED AT ROSS CREEK

About 2 p.m. yesterday Patricia Margaret Jensen, 9, and Godfrey Frederick Jensen, 7, brother and sister, were drowned near the mouth of Ross Creek, Yeppoon. Five children of the Jensen family, the eldest being Lillian Elizabeth Jensen, 14, were swimming in the creek, when Godfrey got into difficulties. Patricia went to his aid, but both were swept out of their depth. Lillian then tried to help them, and she in turn was soon in difficulties. Constable Kelly and a Yeppoon resident, Mr Clive Francis Gregory, were attracted by the cries and they, with others, attempted to save the children. Due to the strong current, all, with the exception of Mr Gregory, were compelled to return to the bank. Mr Gregory, however, went out and succeeded in bringing the 14-year old girl Lillian to shore. The other two children were quickly swept out to sea and soon disappeared from sight. Their bodies have not yet been recovered. Lillian was hurried to the Yeppoon Hospital, which is in the vicinity, and was detained there.

The children resided with their parents at 4 William Street, Yeppoon. The father, Mr H. A. Jensen, is employed on fencing at Fitzroy Vale station. The children were swept out at a spot about 50 yards from a signpost warning bathers of the dangerous current.

Note: The two missing bodies were recovered two days later on the beach at Cooe Bay about half a mile from Ross Creek.
