Medal of Bravery: Canada Gazette 20/6/1987 - awarded to Constable Jan Van Den Born of Maple Ridge, British Columbia on 15 June 1987; invested 25 September 1987.

Citation: On April 9, 1986, while on a routine patrol, Cst. Randy Marquardt observed a high-rise apartment building on fire in Coquitlam, British Columbia. Having requested back-up and alerted the fire department, he entered the building, climbed the stairs to the 12th floor and began knocking on doors to warn occupants and direct them to the stairwell. By this time, smoke was dense throughout the building. He proceeded downstairs, stopping on each floor to alert occupants. Unable to enter the 9th floor because of the heavy smoke, he was met on the 8th by Sgt. Andrews who assisted him in his task. On the 6th floor, they were joined by Cst. Reg Steward and, having obtained a master key, they went back to the 12th floor to ensure all occupants had left the building. Again they were unable to enter the 9th floor. Once outside Cst. Marquardt, who had been overcome by smoke inhalation, was helped to an ambulance. Cst. Steward and Sgt. Andrews assisting in crowd control, observed seven people still stranded on 9th floor balconies. Along with Cst. Jan Van Den Born, they re-entered, climbed to the 9th and located apartments where people remained. They had to force their way in and break the balcony windows to get to the frightened occupants. They then assisted them to the stairwell and downstairs where they were treated for smoke inhalation.

All four police officers were awarded the Medal of Bravery. They also received the Police Commissioner's Commendation.

Jan Van Den Born was born in Holland and immigrated to Canada in 1953. He first lived in Maple Ridge, British Columbia in 1961 and was a volunteer fireman from 1966 to 1974. After working as a postman and a municipal employee he joined the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at 26 years of age. Some of his postings were at Surrey, Williams Lake and Coquitlam.

Shire Of Donald, (Victoria), H.Goldsmith, President, For King And Country, WWI tribute medal in bronze (31mm) (C.1924/2a, with obverse of C.1924/2 and reverse of C.1911/14), by Stokes (& Sons), ring top suspension. Good very fine.

Carlisle states that the above medal is a combination of 1924/2 and 1911/4 however, although records are hard to find, it appears that some time by at least 1915 H.Goldsmith was no longer president of the Shire of Donald. Therefore the reverse design of C.1911/4 appears to be correct, but perhaps the above obverse was a new design that was later used as the George V head on C.1921/2 which has the maker's name under the bust like the above medal. Perhaps the above medal design was presented to those men who enlisted for service in the AIF in 1914.

On Friday 26 December 1924 Francis Palmer was found in the yard of his home at Gayndah, very ill. The 32 year old died shortly after a doctor arrived. A post mortem was held which revealed the presence of poison in his system, believed to have been self administered. He left a widow and four children aged from 6 months to 6 years. Another tragic example of a soldier suffering from war service trauma.

5028*

Shire Of Heidelberg, Victoria, 1915, tribute medal in bronze (30mm) (C.1915/16), by Stokes & Sons, reverse inscribed, 'L.McBride'. Toned good very fine and scarce.

$120

L. McBride, a member of the Fairfield Junior Football Club in the Shire of Heidelberg, volunteered for AIF service along with several other members of the club. His employer at the time, a firm of printers and publishers and lithographers, wrote a letter consenting to him enlisting with the offer of him being accepted back into their employ when he returned from service.

Leonard Lamont McBride, bookbinder, age 20, born at Fairfield Park, Melbourne, Vic; Enl.23Sep1915 in 4Fld Arty Bde at Melbourne, Vic, with previous service of 4 years in CMF with 55Infy Bn; Emb.18Nov1915 as Driver and proceeded to join M.E.F.; Trf to 19th Battery 08Mar1916; TOS 22 FAB 13May1916; to France 14Jun1916; TOS 4 FAB 27Jan1917; RTA 13Jul1919; Disemb.29Aug1919; Disch.21Oct1919.

Some years after the war on 1 March 1938, Leonard McBride, now 42 years old, was working at a paper-cutting machine in the Commonwealth note printing branch at Fitzroy in Victoria. His hand was caught under the falling blade of the machine and as a result two of his fingers were severed, his hand severely lacerated and he was admitted to St Vincent's Hospital suffering from shock and loss of blood.

It was reported in The Farmer and Settler, Sydney, on Friday 25 January 1918, page 2 as follows.

'Capt. Carmichael's Return to Recruit Another Thousand. Captain Carmichael, M.C., M.L.A., who was formerly Minister for Public Instruction in New South Wales, and who recruited a thousand men for the A.I.F., prior to going to the front himself, is returning to Australia, having been twice severely wounded. He stated, at Vancouver, en route to Sydney, that he intended to recruit another thousand men in New South Wales.'

It was later reported in the Crookwell Gazette, NSW, on Tuesday 26 March 1918, page 2 as follows.

'Captain Carmichael, M.L.A., whose career at the front has made him famous, has not lost faith in the courage or patriotism of his fellow Australians and Labor men. He is making a mighty effort to induce leading anti conscriptionists to take part in a convention, entirely apart from politics, with the view of stimulating voluntary enlistment. Mr. Tudor, the leader of the Commonwealth Opposition, Archbishop Mannix and other "No-Conscription" celebrities, with the view of enlisting their co-operation. He believes that a thousand recruits can be raised by united effort within the month, and he proposes personally to lead them to Europe. What is needed he declares, is to create an "atmosphere" favourable to recruiting. The warmest wishes for his success will attend his patriotic activities.'

Infantry Officer's sword, 1892, with rare Royal Engineer's 1857 pattern hilt, etched straight steel blade as introduced in 1892 marked at the hilt by maker, 'Moubray Rowan & Hicks, Melbourne', the guard with attractive scrolling acanthus leaves and is of the type of hilt introduced in 1857 and retained until 1900, sharkskin grip on handle bound with gold wire, brown leather scabbard with steel fittings. Etched pattern on blade worn, otherwise fine.

$1,000

The hilt of this sword has the Royal Engineer's 1857 pattern with attractive scrolling acanthus leaves on the guard. In 1892 the blade was changed to the new straight thrust design with the 1857 hilt initially retained but by the year 1900 the Royal Engineers were regulated to carry the same hilt pattern that the infantry had already adopted.

According to the family, this sword was issued to Arthur James Arnot and has been in the one family since it was issued. Arthur James Arnot was born at Hamilton, Scotland on 26 August 1865. He was an electrical engineer and arrived in Melbourne, Victoria in 1889 to erect a large alternating current plant for the Union Electric Co. He patented the world's first electric drill on 20 August 1889. He installed a comprehensive system of street lighting in Melbourne between 1891 and 1892 as well as managing the Spencer Street power station from 1894 to 1901. He held many other important association positions as well as being a Lieutenant in the Submarine Company, Victorian Engineers from 1894 and transferring to the Reserve of Officers in 1900. He resigned his commission in 1912 but when war broke out in 1914 he was recommissioned in July 1915 into the Australian Engineers and promoted to Captain initially and then in 1916 to Major. In 1918-19 he was Director of Works in the Department of the Chief of Ordnance. He transferred to the Reserves in 1920 and retired in 1925 with the rank of Major. He died on 15 October 1946 at Castle Hill, NSW.
