Opened on 8 April 1994, this was the first bridge across the lower Mekong and the second on the full course of the Mekong River. The construction was funded by the Australian government as a development aid for Laos. It was designed and built by Australian companies. At the opening ceremony on 8 April 1994 the leaders presiding were Nuhak Phumsawan, the President of Lao PDR, His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej of Thailand and Australian Prime Minister Paul Keating. The bridge then opened for use on 23 April 1994. The following medal is attributed to John McLean ASC (Australian Cinematographers Society) who was cameraman for the Australian contingent that built the bridge.

17512 Colin (Hubert) Alan East, RA Infy, born 16Jun1921 at Waverley, Sydney, NSW; WWII Service: 17512 (420121, QX4535); Enl.08Nov1938 at Brisbane, Qld; served in Middle East and Borneo; Vietnam War Service: Official Duty (from Army HQs, Canberra) 08Jun-11Jul1965 and 25Jun-30Jun1966; Disch.29Feb1976; joins Department of Foreign Affairs; transfers to Department of Veterans' Affairs in 1982; retires in 1986 and serves as Life Governor of the Royal Australian Regiment Foundation, President of the Australia-Papua New Guinea Friendship Association, President of the Royal United Services Institution of NSW and Vice-President of the Royal Commonwealth Society; Died at his home 07Dec1999.

In 1964 Lt-Col East was the first Australian and the first foreign student to attend the Indonesian Army's Command and Staff College (Seskoed) in Bandung. He joined the Army in 1938 as a Private and served in World War II and was severely wounded at the Battle of Tobruk. The balance of his WWII service was in Darwin and as company commander in the 2/9th Infantry Battalion in the 1 July landing at Balikpapan. He also served with BCOF (awarded MBE) and in the Korean War. He completed the Australian Staff College in 1955 and 1957 and also attended the University of Melbourne where he studied the Indonesian language and culture. He was posted to the 28th Commonwealth Infantry Brigade in British-Malaya from the end of 1957 (awarded MID). On 11 November 1966 he became Commanding Officer 4RAR at Terendak Garrison, Malacca, Malaya and the unit was part of the British Commonwealth Far East Strategic Reserve. In 1968 he was promoted to Colonel and appointed as Commanding Officer of 1st Recruit Training Battalion. It appears that the above tankard was presented to him when he was leaving 4RAR to take command of the Training Battalion. Lt-Col East's contribution to Australia-Indonesia relations is recognised to this day by the annual Colin East Award Study Visit which recognises the importance of people to people links between the Australian Defence Force and the Indonesian National Armed Forces.

Masonic Square and Compass Clubs had been formed in Manila during WWII. After American military advisors began arriving in Vietnam in 1955-56 any American military and civilian personnel wanting to join the 'Craft' were referred to Biak Na Bato Lodge No 7 Free and Accepted Masons in Manila. To overcome this difficult situation, on 4 December 1966, a group of Master Masons belonging to various different Grand Lodges sent a petition to the Grand Lodge of the Philippines, requesting a dispensation to form a Craft Lodge at Saigon. On the 4 January 1967, this dispensation was granted. The Lodge was approved by Grand Communication on 23 April 1969, and on the 6 June 1969, constituted as Saigon No 188 Free & Accepted Masons, Saigon and the Republic of South Vietnam. The general membership consisted mostly of American and Filipino workers employed by the many construction companies. Soon there were numerous Masonic organisations all over Vietnam including the Square and Compass Clubs.

The Anglo-Australian Investment Finance & Land Company went into liquidation in early 1893. At an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders held at Sydney on 30 January 1893 the chairman announced that Mr Humphrey MLC had been requested by the London debenture holders to act in their interests.

Mrs Helen Potter of 2 Bolton Gardens as named on the above debenture was the mother of the world famous children's book author, Helen Beatrix Potter, who was born at 2 Bolton Gardens, Kensington, London on 28 July 1866 into a well-to-do family and lived there until she married William Heelis in 1913. Her first book, The Tale of Peter Rabbit was published in 1902 while she was living at 2 Bolton Gardens. Mrs Helen Potter died 20 December 1932 at the age of 93.
