Eleventh Session, Commencing at 11:30am

---

1664*
Mexico, Philip IV, (1622-67), silver cob half reale, date not visible (KM.22). Toned, signs of salt water corrosion, very fine.

1667*
Mexico, Ferdinand VI, (1746-1759), silver eight reales, 1753, (18.64g), salvaged from the wreck of the Doddington (KM.104). Salt water damaged particularly on the obverse, fine.

$200

Ex Alan McRae Collection, with his display plaque.

1665*
Mexico, Philip V, silver eight reales, 1738 M.F. Mexico City mint (KM.103), salvaged from the wreck of the Hollandia. Dark toned, salt water corrosion, very fine especially for sea salvage.

$150

Ex Alan McRae Collection with his display ticket.

The Hollandia sank just off the Scilly Isles, whilst on her maiden voyage from Amsterdam to Java in July 1743.

The Doddington was an East Indiaman of the EIC, which wrecked off Bird Island, near Port Elizabeth in South Africa on the 17th July 1755, whilst carrying "Clive of India's Gold".

1668*
Mexico, Ferdinand VII, silver eight reales, 1811 HJ, Mexico City mint (KM.11). Dark toned, surface porosity suggesting sea salvage, chopmarked, good fine.

$200

1666*
Mexico, Philip V, silver eight reales, 1740MF (KM.103). Porous, nearly very fine.

$200

Ex Wreck of the Hollandia sank off Scilles on maiden voyage 13.7.1743.

1669*
Mexico, United States Silver Bullion Coinage, one onza in .999 fine silver, 1982 (2). Very fine/about uncirculated. (2)
 $220

1670
Mexico, bi-metal 100 pesos 2003 (KM.688), (KM.690); 2004 (KM.740); 2005 (KM.715); 2007 (KM.848), (KM.849), (KM.853); also Australia one dollar, 1993 in card pack. Very fine or better. (8) $50

1671*
Morocco, Hassan II, silver fifty dirhams, AH 1398/ 1978, Green March (KM.Y.133). FDC.
 $250

In a slab by PCGS as MS68 (38597616). Incorrect date printed on label.

1672*
Mozambique, Portuguese colony, Maria II, silver onca, 1843, (26.65g), (KM.26.1, Gomes 12.01). Usual striking weakness with a clear date, very fine and rare.
 $500

Ex Alan McRae Collection with his display ticket.

1673*
Netherlands, Dutch Republic, City of Deventer, silver rider or ducaton, 1666, (KM.62.1, Dav 4944), sea salvage from the wreck of the Merenstejin, recovered April 1978. Salt water damage, toning, very good.
 $150

Ex Alan McRae Collection with his display ticket and a COA from the salvors.

The VOC ship Merensteijin was sailing for Batavia with a consignment of silver specie. Much of the crew was suffering from scurvy, and with dwindling water supplies, the ship was forced to shore to restock. Whilst attempting to enter Saldanha Bay during the night of the 2nd April 1702, it ran aground and broke up within the hour. Only 99 members of the crew survived by swimming to Jutten Island, where the Wezel and Amij were able to rescue them.

1674*
Netherlands, Deventer, silver 28 stuivers or florin, 1684, countermarked with bundle of arrows, 1693 (KM.76 [host coin], KM.4.9 [countermark, host date not listed]), sea salvage from the wreck of the Hollandia. Toned, host coin fine, countermark very fine.
 $150

Ex Alan McRae Collection with his display tickets.

The seven bundled arrows represented the provinces of the Dutch Republic, and served to combat the underweight coinage circulating at the end of the 17th century.

1675*
Netherlands, Utrecht, silver rider, 1671 (KM.???) (Delmonte 1029) (26.82g). Waterworn good fine.

$300

Ex Meerestein, VOC ship sunk Saldanha Bay, South Africa 1702, with Baldwin envelope.

Part

1676*
Netherlands, Utrecht, silver rider or ducaton, 1711 (2), and third no date or arms visible, all with corrosion consistent with sea salvage, the third heavily cleaned. Fine; fine; good. (3)

$300

Date and surface condition is consistent with coins recovered from the Dutch East Indiaman 'De Liefde', although vendor advises that no paperwork could be located to confirm their provenance.

1677*
Netherlands, Overijssel, silver rider or ducatoon, 1734, salvaged from the 1735 wreck of VOC Vliegende Hart (Flying Hart). Corrosion damage between 12 and 3 around edge, toned, otherwise very fine.

$200

Ex Alan McRae Collection with his display ticket.

The Flying Hart was commissioned by the Zeeland Chambers of the VOC, and it's cargo of silver riders were likely smuggled aboard by a senior official as their export was forbidden. The ship sank after hitting a sandbank 18km off the coast of Vlissingen, with all lives lost.

1678
Netherlands East Indies, one tenth gulden, 1941P (10), 1942S (KM.318) (11); quarter gulden, 1941P (KM.319) (7). Very fine - uncirculated. (18)

$120

Ex Alan McRae Collection, with his display ticket.

De Liefde was a VOC ship that ran aground and sank in the North Sea off the Shetland Islands whilst returning from the East to the Dutch Republic, on the 7th January 1711. Only one crew member survived the wreck and an estimated 227,000 guilders, and 1,800 silver and gold ducats were lost.

1746*
Sweden, Frederick I, copper plate money, four daler, 1734, (KM.PM74), salvaged from the wreck of the Nicobar. Corrosion and edge chipping, nearly very fine and scarce.

$500

Ex Alan McRae Collection, with his display card.

The Nicobar sank off Quoin Point, Capetown on the 10th July 1783, whilst enroute to the East. 300 pieces of Swedish copper plate money were onboard.

1748*
Thailand, Thai Kingdoms, (17th-19th centuries), debased silver tok Chiang Mai (pig mouth or oyster money), (63.18g), three circular countermarks on either side of the aperture, blackened top and yellowish-brown underside (cf Mitch 2800). Very fine as cast.

$100

Ex Alan McRae Collection with his display ticket.

The discolouration on the underside is traditionally attributed to the addition of egg yolk and chicken blood to the mould before casting. Recent work suggests the application of gold leaf may instead have achieved this finish.

1749*
Thailand, Kingdom, Rama V, bronze siao, CS 1244 (1882 AD) (KM.Y.19). Uncirculated.
